Set on the water's edge in the picturesque harbour of Portloe, relish in a real Cornish Christmas this year at The Luggar. Snuggle up to roaring log fires, adventure out with brisk cliff top walks, enjoy Christmas carols and great company; all the creature comforts for which The Luggar is renowned.

Enviably positioned on the Roseland Coastal Footpath, bask in its stunning scenery then curl up with a glass of warming mulled wine.

We would be delighted to organise a variety of activities in the local area or you could always stay under the covers and choose from a large selection of board games, books. Specially negotiated rates are available at local golf courses, and we can arrange tickets for The Lost Gardens of Heligan. Why not enter the festive spirit and try ice skating at the Eden Project.
